Corporate culture

■ Preamble

Lumberg is a family-owned company with tradition where shareholders identify themselves with the company and the staff members. To assure our entrepreneurial independence and freedom of decision we focus on lasting and profit-oriented growth.

■ Business relationships

Our business relationships are customer-oriented and focus on long-term partnership for mutual benefit.

■ Staff

We meet respectfully, tolerantly and trustfully. Our activities are performance oriented and shaped by entrepreneurial thinking. We support our staff members to achieve our common objectives.

■ Communication

Open communication, commitment and fairness among ourselves are essential elements of our cooperation.

■ Technology

We strive to maintain our know-how along the entire chain of value added in the enterprise and developing it further according to the latest technologies.

■ Society

We accept our community responsibilities within the regions we operate. We offer training and create jobs. Within the scope of our possibilities we work environmentally friendly and handle natural resources economically.
